Fall & Halloween Promotions

Celebrate the harvest of fall! This is easier for some professions than others. If the company doesn't allow costumes on Halloween, don't treat it as if it's just another day. Use this weird holiday, to boost company moral or bring joy to your customers with Halloween Promotions.

Put a little bag of candy on everyone's desk, accompanied by a fun Halloween toy: Frankenstein Rubber Duck, Mummy Duck or a festive cup.

Remember: When first impressions count – you can count on PromosMatter.

Did you know?!

Careerbuilder.com reports that over 1/3 of employees will be celebrating Halloween by dressing up at work.

September 1st is Labor Day!

September 17th is Constitution Day!

September 19th Talk Like a Pirate Day!

Think Pink!!!
